

WATCHMAN ON THE WALL

Weekly Prayer Requests

November 12, 2018

Pastor Nathan

- Ask the Lord to order our every step that we might arrive at his destination at his time in his way in every facet of life.

Gary Rothenberger, Executive Pastor

- continue to pray for the North Building to open by Jan 4th., the new completion date. Bad weather and a lack of material continue to delay the project. Specifically we could use a few weeks of sunshine, wall covering, flooring, and no “surprises.”

Cliff Ozmun, Minister of Education

- “Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the nations, and I will sing praises to Your name.” (2 Sam. 22:50)
- Thank the Lord for the abundance of blessings in your life today. Just imagine how grateful you’d be if you lost everything you have—and then got it back again! Thank Him like that.
- The root of evangelism is disciple-making. Please pray for those who have been working to make disciples throughout Calvary. Pray for those seeds to take root and the Great Commission will be fulfilled as we make disciples who will make disciples who will make disciples, going onward. Please pray that more believers at Calvary would step forward and become disciple-makers.

Justin Edgerly, North Campus Pastor

- Please pray again this week that God would empower me to love and lead my family well, steward the ministry entrusted to me well, and complete this semester’s schoolwork with excellence. Thank you for your prayers.

John Griffin, Worship Pastor

- “Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my rock and my Redeemer.” Psalm 19: 14 As God’s children, our heart’s desire is that our lives will always be a fragrant offering of praise to our Lord and Savior. Pray for God’s Spirit, His Word, His way and His love to fill you and to flow out of you for His glory and honor.

Clay Jones, Minister of Missions

- Please pray over the 2019 Calvary Missions calendar. Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Ask him where he would have you go to preach the Gospel, and take time to listen for his answer.

Steven Hays, Worship Minister

- Please pray for my wife, Phyllis, as she is taking three class with Liberty University, working full time, and working toward her teaching certificate. Please also pray for me as I learn the music for the Christmas concert ministry coming up on December 9th.

Bill Morgan, Pastoral Care and Minister to Median and Mature Adults

- Pray for the leaders in our Adult Connection Groups to know the strength of the Lord in special ways as they reach people for Christ and build them up once they come. Phil. 4:13

Kevin Goodwin, Next Generation Minister

- Please pray for Winter Retreat this December 27-29. Pray that God would use this time to mold students into what He has called them to be. Pray that our leaders would be energized to influence those around them.

Debby Martin, Minister to Preteens and Children

- Pray that the Holy Spirit will reveal to our parents that they are parenting sinners, only God's ways will point them to the right path in life and only Jesus can save them. Pray we would realize that there is nothing more important than teaching and living like Jesus.

Angela Bush, Minister to Preschoolers

- Please be in prayer for those who have lost loved ones as the holidays are approaching. Pray for a peace that can only come from God and comfort as they are celebrating with heavy hearts.

Alex Alzamora, Casa Calvario Pastor

- Please pray for those with life controlling addictions to be free. May they know the freedom and sufficiency that they have in Christ and be free to serve Him, their families and their communities.

William Gragg, North Campus Worship Minister

- Pray for the North Worship Band to grow in our love for Jesus, chemistry as a team, and musical skill. Pray that the church would be encouraged to worship Christ as they see us worship Him.

Eliot Pages, North Campus Minister of Adult Education

- 2 Corinthians 7:10 – “For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.”

My prayer request for this week is that we would be broken over the sin that is in our life. That our brokenness would lead us to a sorrow that brings about salvation and repentance. Not that we are made to feel guilty in a way that we are looked down upon as the world would do, only leading to more shame and deeper depression and death, but that we would be made whole again in Christ. That we would once again be able to stand tall in His presence and move forward in the journey that he has laid before us. Walking straight the narrow path, and though, we may not always know what lies before us, but that we would trust in the One who does, continually leading us to ultimate victory.

Dalton Washburn, North Campus Minister to Students

- Pray that students will be involved in the Christian organizations of their schools, and that they may be the light of Christ to others through that

Norm Davis, North Campus Minister to Families

- Pray that Calvary’s body of believers would immerse themselves in the reading and study of God’s word daily in order to discern truth from false teachings in this world.

1Timothy 4:6 “In pointing out these things to the brethren, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound doctrine which you have been following.”

Summer Tallina, North Campus Preteen Director

- Personal: Please pray for our oldest son, Aaron. Pray that God would put someone in his life who would encourage him and pull him away from “the world”.
- Ministry: Pray for Preteens in Blended Families. Pray against the enemy’s attacks on their self-worth and confidence. Pray that Calvary would meet them where they are and that we would be intentional about building relationships that lead them to Jesus and not chasing after approval in the world.

Beth Blanchard, North Campus Preschool Director

- Praise for Mrs. Andrea and Mrs. Carrie who will be serving with preschoolers. Pray for God to continue to guide me to faithfully connect with preschoolers and their families!
