

WATCHMAN ON THE WALL

Weekly Prayer Requests

January 21, 2019

Pastor Nathan

- Thank God for a wonderful time of celebration.
- Pray for those whose lives are deeply touched by grief.
- Thank God that He is with us for both and all circumstances in between.

Gary Rothenberger, Executive Pastor

- Pray for completion of the new Calvary North Multi-purpose Building and for permission to use the building for the first time on January 27.
- Pray for the planning and construction of the Highway 96 frontage project, “the boulevard,” and pray for the funding to complete it.
- Pray for two new tenants to occupy space in the Tuscany office park. We are working with a few prospects now.
- Pray for ongoing and faithful giving to the regular church budget

Cliff Ozmun, Minister of Education

- Please pray for the Christian Life Institute classes that begin on January 27. Pray for students to enroll, for the instructors to teach clearly, and that God would reward those learners who are seeking to increase in biblical literacy.

Justin Edgerly, North Campus Pastor

- Pray for my family this week with the passing of my grandfather, who was a pillar of Christian faithfulness.

John Griffin, Worship Pastor

- “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?” 56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 15: 55-57

God’s Word reminds us of the reality of His conquering love over sin, death, hell and the grave. Praise God for Jesus Christ and His redeeming grace for you and me. Please pray for our dear brother in Christ, Clark White and his family, as they mourn the passing and yet celebrate the miracle of eternal life that his wife, Nancy, is now enjoying with Jesus. Hallelujah, what a Savior. Pray for those you know who need to repent and trust Christ as Savior.

Clay Jones, Minister of Missions

- Pray that Calvary will become increasingly aware of the lost world around us, both locally and globally, and that we will recognize our responsibility to engage this lostness with the truth of the Gospel.

Steven Hays, Worship Minister

- Please pray for my wife, Phyllis as she is taking some classes toward her teaching certification. Please pray that God would use her greatly as she serves Title I children in the Lumberton area. Please pray for me as I learn how to use several new computer software packages to be used for Christ's glory and enhance His reputation! Please pray for God to send red hot revival to Southeast Texas! Pray for brother John Griffin and I as we labor together in worship service planning, that God would speak to us and guide us through this spiritual process.

Bill Morgan, Pastoral Care and Minister to Median and Mature Adults

- Pray that the fruit of the Spirit; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control would be evident in our lives every day. (Refer to Gal, 5:22 when you pray this.)
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,<sup>23</sup> gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.
-Galatians 5:22-23

Kevin Goodwin, Next Generation Minister

- Pray for our upcoming trip to Mission Arlington with the student ministry. Pray that God would raise up leaders who are willing to answer His call, and that they would be blessed in their efforts and obedience.

Debby Martin, Minister to Preteens and Children

- Pray that our children would hear the small still voice of God in the midst of our noisy culture this week. Pray for a quiet moment where they will realize whose child they really are.
For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup> I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. -Psalm 139:13

Angela Bush, Minister to Preschoolers

- Please be in prayer for those who lost loved ones this past week. Pray that God would give them a peace that transcends all understanding. Pray that God would draw them close to Him as they mourn the loss of their loved one.

"And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." -Philippians 4:7

Alex Alzamora, Casa Calvario Pastor

- Thanksgiving for Jeremiah and Marina Moreno who are now home. Continue to pray for their well being.

Michael Roxas, Minister to Internationals

- Please pray for me as a start a Discipleship Bible Study Series entitled: "Blessings of Christian Life and Battle we need to face daily."
- Please pray for our leaders as we continue to reach out to the Internationals in the Golden Triangle area-They will share my vision of engaging the Growing Hindu and Muslim communities in our area and that we will be more proactive in meeting needs in our city.
- Please pray for our leaders to start bible study/prayer meetings in their offices during their break times.

William Gragg, North Campus Worship Minister

- Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

Thank God for His word, repent for the times we've ignored it, and pray that the word of Christ would make its home beautifully in each one of our hearts (privately and when we gather for worship).

Eliot Pages, North Campus Minister of Adult Education

- I pray that we would respond quickly and favorably to God's call in our lives.

In my reading this week and looking at Moses' response to his life, he continually made excuses about why he couldn't do what God was calling him to do, even after being shown what He is capable of doing, he kept trying to get out of it. Moses' brother Aaron, on the other hand, did what he was told the first time without question. Though Moses did what he was called to do and accomplished what God wanted to have accomplished he did it reluctantly and looking for ways to get out of it.

All that to say, pray that we answer God's call in our lives confidently, quickly and joyfully. Also, be in prayer for how you can use your gifts to serve in the church.

Dalton Washburn, North Campus Minister to Students

- Pray for the students and adult leaders that are preparing to go to Mission Arlington in February. Pray for them to have the boldness and confidence to share what Christ has done in their lives with others. Pray that God will give them divine appointments and that people's hearts will be moved towards the Gospel.

Norm Davis, North Campus Minister to Families

- Pray with me that our young families will see the need to continue the spiritual conversation from Sunday into their homes for the entire week.

Summer Tallina, North Campus Preteen Director

- Personal: Please continue praying for our oldest son, Aaron. Pray for us to have wisdom while ministering to him, where he is. God has plans for him, pray that we would remember that he is His child before he is ours.
- Ministry: Pray that parents would have a desire to become educated regarding technology and the digital age so that they can be intentional in starting REAL conversations with their children about healthy media boundaries, self-worth and treating others the way they would want to be treated.

Beth Blanchard, North Campus Preschool Director

- Be in prayer with me as I lift up our volunteers in all areas we see and do not see throughout our campuses. God knows each of their names. Thank you God for their faithfulness.
- Personal prayer: Pray with me for God to put His protection around my family. Praying for Blake to be strengthened with the continued changes at his job.
