They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ⁴³ Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. ⁴⁴ All the believers were together and had everything in common. ⁴⁵ They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. ⁴⁶ Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. -Acts 2:42-47

John Griffin, Worship Pastor

- Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you is faithful; He will surely do it. 1 Thess. 5: 23-24

How we thank the Lord that He has taken up residence in our lives at the very moment of our conversion. We praise Him that He has set us apart and indwells us by His Spirit. What's more, He assures us of that wonderful day when we will see Him face to face and be free of the struggles of the old sin nature. Until then, pray for God to daily fill you with His heart and Spirit so that His glory and purposes are made manifest in and through your life.

- I also ask you to pray for the salvation of Assahn, a Muslim, who is an Uber driver with whom I was able to share Jesus Christ while in Memphis, Tn. last week. Pray for God to open Assahn's heart to the love and free gift of salvation offered through Jesus Christ.

(Refer to Phil. 1:9-11 when you pray this.)
